

Strictly Cricket

Broad Appeal Ball
Wednesday 12 September 2018
The Dorchester Hotel, London

The Broad Appeal and friends are coming together to double their aim of raising awareness and finding a cure for motor neurone disease. This will be a night to remember, with many celebrity friends from the world of sport and entertainment taking a leading role.

Join us for a Champagne reception, superb dinner, live and silent auction including 'money can't buy' items, Q&A with Stuart Broad and fellow players, chaired by David Gower and be the judge while "Strictly" dancers reunite with their legendary cricketing partners for another turn on the dance floor to a fabulous live band, ending the evening joining in!
